Location

YMCA Camp MacLean is located just two miles east of Burlington, Wisconsin on 147 acres of woods and grassland property. Camp borders on 50-acre Rockland Lake. By car we are 90 minutes northwest of Chicago and 45 minutes southwest of Milwaukee. We are 15 miles from the Lake Geneva area. Burlington, a city of 10,000, has plenty of services available including and an up-to-date medical facility.

Driving to Camp?

From Chicagoland: Take either the Tri-state toll-way or the Edens expressway north to Interstate 94 (west). Continue on I-94 following all the signs for Milwaukee. Take Tri-State Toll way 294 that connects to Highway 94. Exit at Highway 142 going west towards Burlington. Continue 17 miles on Highway 142. Continue over the HWY 11 by-pass onto Main Street. At the light, turn right onto County Rd E. Travel 1 mile and camp will be on your right. Continue on the main camp driveway until you reach the main lodge parking lot.

From Milwaukee: Take Highway 36 (Loomis Road) south toward Burlington. Turn left at County W. Continue on W for approximately 3 miles. Turn left (east) on

!Map Image

Country Rd E. Travel 3/4 mile. YMCA Camp MacLean is located on the right hand side of the road. Follow the main camp driveway until you reach the main lodge parking lot.

From Whitewater & Madison: Take HWY 12 towards Lake Geneva. Exit on Highway 120 North. (The sign says 120 N to 36 N Burlington) Follow 120 North 2-3 miles to HWY 36 Turn right on 36 N. Take 36 into Burlington. Then take County Rd E East. Follow the signs through Burlington. You will leave Burlington, go about 1 mile and camp is on the Right hand side. Follow the main camp driveway until you reach the main lodge parking lot.