YMCA OF METRO CHICAGO
801 N. DEARBORN ST.
CHICAGO, IL 60610
As a YMCA volunteer, you have a right...

- To be treated as a partner and coworker, not as free help.
- To a meaningful assignment, with consideration for your individual interest, skills and life experiences.
- To be kept in the know about the YMCA’s programs, policies and people through frequent communications that may include conversations, meetings, memos, newsletters, emails and text messages.
- To orientation and training for the job that is thoughtfully planned and effectively presented.
- To continuing education and training, including information about new developments and training for greater responsibility.
- To sound guidance and direction by someone who is experienced, well-informed, patient and thoughtful and who has the time to invest.
- To be treated respectfully and to be given equal consideration for all volunteer assignments, regardless of age, income, disabilities, sex, background or religion.
- To a variety of experiences through promotion to assignments of more responsibility, through transfer from one assignment to another, and through special assignments.
- To be heard, to have a part in planning, to feel free to make suggestions, and to have respect shown for an honest opinion.

As a YMCA volunteer, you have a responsibility...

- To have at heart the interests of the kids, families, adults and communities the YMCA serves.
- To understand the YMCA’s mission and goals, realizing that the association has accepted your voluntary service and participation in order to achieve those goals.
- To abide by the commitments you make, doing what you say you will, when you say you will.
- To speak up, asking questions and sharing ideas, enthusiasm, and concerns.
- To accept supervision, knowing that everyone is accountable to someone: the staff to the executive director, the Executive Director to the CEO, and the Board the board to the community.
- To offer criticism constructively, seeking to understand before judging.
- To continue to grow and to learn more about the job, the YMCA, and the YMCA way.
- To recognize that a nonprofit does not mean non-competent; both YMCA paid staff members and volunteers have talents and gifts to exchange with each other.
- To treat all people with loving kindness and open communication, regardless of age, income, ability, background, sex or religion.
- To act as a responsible member of our YMCA family, learning the give and take necessary for the common good.
- To become a voice for the community in the Y and a voice for the Y in the community.
- To seek joy in your volunteer service; having fun is an essential part of volunteering at the YMCA.
Volunteers are a welcome and enriching aspect of YMCA Programs. The achievement of our mission and goals is best served by the active participation of citizens from our community.

Volunteer Rights and Responsibilities

Volunteers are viewed as a valuable resource to the YMCA, its staff and its clients. Volunteers shall be extended the right to be given meaningful assignments, the right to be treated as equal colleagues, the right to effective supervision, the right to full involvement and participation, and the right to recognition for work done. In return, volunteers shall agree to actively perform their duties to the best of their abilities and to remain loyal to the mission, goals and procedures of the Metro Chicago YMCA.

The Definition of a YMCA Volunteer

A YMCA volunteer is defined as anyone who willingly gives time to help the YMCA accomplish its mission without receiving any compensation or special privileges of any kind from the YMCA.

Confidentiality

Volunteers are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of all proprietary or privileged information they are exposed to while serving as a volunteer, whether this information involves an individual staff, volunteer, client, or other person, or involves overall agency business. Failure to maintain confidentiality may result in termination of the volunteer’s relationship with the YMCA or other corrective action.

Dress Code

As representatives of the YMCA of Metro Chicago, volunteers, like staff, are responsible for presenting a good image to clients and the community. Volunteers shall dress appropriately for the conditions and performance of their duties. Volunteers must wear their identification badges when volunteering in programs.

Conflict of Interest

No person who has a conflict of interest with any activity or program of the YMCA, whether personal, philosophical, or financial shall be accepted or serve as a volunteer with the YMCA.

I have carefully read this volunteer commitment statement and understand that any violation of this volunteer commitment statement may result in termination.

YMCA of the USA
Child Abuse Prevention Training for Front-Line Staff
Handout 10—Code of Conduct
(for YMCA Staff and Volunteers)

1. To protect YMCA staff, volunteers, and program members, at no time during a YMCA program may a staff person be alone with a single child where he or she cannot be observed by others. As staff supervise children, they should space themselves in such a way that other staff can see them.

2. Staff shall never leave a child unsupervised.

3. Rest-room supervision: Staff will make sure the rest room is not occupied by suspicious or unknown individuals before allowing children to use the facilities. Staff will stand in the doorway of the rest room while children are using the rest room. This policy allows privacy for the children and protection for the staff (not being alone with a child). If staff are assisting younger children, doors to the facility must remain open. No child, regardless of age, should ever enter a bathroom alone on a field trip or at other off-site location. Always send children in threes (known as the rule of three), and whenever possible, with staff.

4. Staff should conduct or supervise private activities in pairs—diapering, putting on bathing suits, taking showers, and so on. When this is not feasible, staff should be positioned so that they are visible to others.

5. Staff shall not abuse children in any way, including
   - physical abuse—striking, spanking, shaking, slapping, and so on;
   - verbal abuse—humiliating, degrading, threatening, and so on;
   - sexual abuse—touching or speaking inappropriately;
   - mental abuse—shaming, withholding kindness, being cruel, and so on;
   - neglect— withholding food, water, or basic care.

   No type of abuse will be tolerated and may be cause for immediate dismissal.

6. Staff must use positive techniques of guidance, including redirection, positive reinforcement, and encouragement rather than competition, comparison, and criticism. Staff will have age-appropriate expectations and set up guidelines and environments that minimize the need for discipline. Physical restraint is used only in predetermined situations (when necessary to protect the child or other children from harm), administered only in a prescribed manner, and must be documented in writing.
7. Staff will conduct a health check of each child upon his or her arrival each time the program meets, noting any fever, bumps, bruises, burns, and so on. Questions or comments will be addressed to the parent or child in a nontthreatening way. Staff will document any questionable marks or responses.

8. Staff will respond to children with respect and consideration and treat all children equally, regardless of sex, race, religion, culture, economic level of the family, or disability.

9. Staff will respect children’s rights not to be touched or looked at in ways that make them feel uncomfortable, and their right to say no. Other than diapering, children are not to be touched on areas of their bodies that would be covered by a bathing suit.

10. Staff will refrain from intimate displays of affection toward others in the presence of children, parents, and staff.

11. Staff are not to transport children in their own vehicles or allow youth participants old enough to drive to transport younger children in the program.

12. Staff must appear clean, neat, and appropriately attired.

13. Using, possessing, or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs during working hours is prohibited.

14. Smoking or use of tobacco in the presence of children or parents during working hours is prohibited.

15. Possession or use of any type of weapon or explosive device is prohibited.

16. Using YMCA computers to access pornographic sites, send e-mails with sexual overtones or otherwise inappropriate messages, or develop online relationships is not allowed.

17. Profanity, inappropriate jokes, sharing intimate details of one’s personal life, and any kind of harassment in the presence of children, parents, volunteers, or other staff is prohibited.

18. Staff may not be alone with children they meet in YMCA programs outside the YMCA. This includes babysitting, sleepovers, driving or riding in cars, and inviting children to their homes. Any exceptions require a written explanation before the fact and are subject to prior administrator approval.
19. Staff must be free of physical and psychological conditions that might adversely affect children’s physical or mental health. If in doubt, an expert should be consulted.

20. Staff will portray a positive role model for youth by maintaining an attitude of loyalty, patience, courtesy, tact, and maturity.

21. Staff should not give excessive gifts (e.g., TV, video games, jewelry) to youth.

22. Staff may not date program participants who are under the age of 18.

23. Under no circumstances should staff release children to anyone other than the authorized parent, guardian, or other adult authorized by the parent or guardian (written parent authorization on file with the YMCA).

24. Staff are to report to a supervisor any other staff or volunteer who violates any of the policies listed in this Code of Conduct.

25. Staff are required to read and sign all policies related to identifying, documenting, and reporting child abuse and attend trainings on the subject, as instructed by a supervisor.

26. Staff will act in a caring, honest, respectful, and responsible manner consistent with the mission of the YMCA.

I understand that any violation of this Code of Conduct may result in termination.

NOTICE TO ALL EMPLOYEES

Harassment Policy

Policy
It is the policy of the YMCA that harassment on the basis of protected classification (race, creed, color, religion, sex, national origin, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, age, membership on a local human rights commission and sexual orientation), including sexual harassment, is prohibited.

Such harassment violates the law, creates an offensive working environment, decreases productivity, adversely affects positive working relationships, increases costs to the organization and tarnishes the image of the organization and everybody associated with it.

Guidelines
Definition of Harassment
No employee of the YMCA may engage in verbal or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual because of that person's race, creed, color, religion, sex, national origin, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, age, membership on a local human rights commission or sexual orientation, or that of the person's relatives, friends or associates, if the conduct:

- Has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with the person's work performance; or
- Otherwise adversely affects that person's employment opportunities.

The following are examples of prohibited harassment. Please note that these are not the only examples. If you have a question about whether conduct is permissible under this policy, you should discuss it with your supervisor or with Human Resources.
- Epithets, slurs or negative stereotypes;
- Intimidating or hostile acts based upon protected classification;
- Written or graphic material that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion to persons of a protected classification and that is posted or circulated on YMCA property.

One form of prohibited harassment is sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is defined as:
- Making as a condition of employment or continuing employment either unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature; or
- Making submission to or rejection of such conduct the basis for employment decisions affecting an employee; or
- Creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment or otherwise substantially interfering with an individual's employment by such conduct; or
- Retaliating against an employee for complaining about such conduct.
Harassment Policy

The following are examples of sexual harassment. Please note that these are not the only examples:

- Unwelcome sexual flirtations, propositions, and invitations to social events;
- Offensive physical contact or physical closeness;
- Use of words of a sexual nature describing body parts or sexual acts, telling "suggestive" jokes or stories, and conversations about sexual exploits or sexual desires;
- Displaying in the workplace sexually suggestive objects, pictures, cartoons, or representations of any action or subject which is sexual in nature and which can be perceived as offensive;
- Sabotaging an employee’s character, reputation, work effects, or property because of sex;
- Direct or indirect suggestions that an employee's job security, job assignment, conditions of employment or opportunities for advancement depend in any way on the granting of sexual favors or relations.

If you have a question about whether conduct is permissible under this policy, you should discuss it with your supervisor, or Human Resources.

The YMCA recognizes that consensual relationships sometimes exist between employees which are, or have the potential of becoming, sexual in nature. The YMCA strongly discourages such relationships, particularly those in which differences in age, background, or other characteristics of the two individuals compromise the ability of either one to make an informed decision about participating in the relationship. Such relationships between a supervisor and subordinate are expressly prohibited.

Complaints Relating to Prohibited Harassment

An employee who believes he or she has been subject to harassment prohibited by this policy should report the incident immediately to your supervisor or Human Resources.

The complaining employee will be asked to put the facts surrounding the offensive conduct or communication in writing. Thereafter, the investigation may include interviews with the employee making the charges, the accused employee, or appropriate witnesses, depending upon the individual circumstances of the matter.

Determination of whether prohibited harassment occurred will be made on a case-by-case basis, depending upon the circumstances of the matter, including the type of harassment alleged, the context in which the alleged harassment occurred and any other facts deemed relevant. The employee making the complaint will be advised of the final disposition of the matter.
YMCA of Metropolitan Chicago

NOTICE TO ALL EMPLOYEES

Harassment Policy

Penalties for Prohibited Harassment
A violation of this policy may be grounds for immediate discipline, up to and including discharge, or other appropriate action. Sanctions, if any, will be determined on a case-by-case basis, after a review of relevant information.

For More Information
Any questions regarding your obligations and those of others under this Policy should be directed to the Human Resources Department.

I acknowledge that I have read the above policy and fully understand its components. I also acknowledge that I have been given a copy for my records and the signed original will remain on file with my personnel records.
