

CONNECTING PEOPLE AND COMMUNITY

You're invited! Sports Ambassador meeting

YMCA Sports shape healthy spirits, minds and bodies through structured programs that teach youth the importance of exercise, teamwork and fair play, among other confidence and character building lessons. Our impact is made possible and powerful through parental involvement, volunteer support and community connections.

We want to hear from you!

Join us for an informational meeting to learn about our newly-launching Sports Ambassador Committee. Be a driving force in representing the needs, interests and change potential of the South Side Y Sports community.

Charting our course:

The Y Sports Ambassador Committee functions to improve and expand sports opportunities through the voice of invested parents and cause-driven leaders in our community. Goals and roles of the committee include:

- Parent panel/focus group
- Annual Campaign/fundraising
- Marketing/community engagement
- Program volunteer/program expansion
- Mission/Togetherhood®
